B. This order (this “Sale Order”) constitutes a final and appealable order within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 158(a). C. The statutory predicates for the relief requested in the Motion are sections 105(a), 363, and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 6004, 6006, 9007, and 9014 and Local Rule 6004-1.

D. The findings of fact and conclusions of law set forth herein constitute the Court’s findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7052, made applicable to this proceeding pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9014.

II. Notice of the Sale, Auction, and the Cure Amounts

E. Actual written notice of the Bidding Procedures Hearing, the Sale Hearing, the Auction, the Motion, the Sale, the assumption, assignment, cure and sale of the Assumed Contracts to be assigned to the Buyer pursuant to the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement (including, as of the date hereof, those which are identified on Exhibit B hereto) has been timely and properly provided to, and a reasonably calculated, fair and reasonable opportunity to object or be heard with respect to the Motion and the relief requested therein has been afforded to, all known interested persons and entities, including, but not limited to the following parties: (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware; (ii) the Debtors’ thirty (30) largest unsecured creditors on a consolidated basis; (iii) counsel to the DIP Lenders and the DIP Agent (each as defined in the Final DIP Order); (iv) respective counsel to the Prepetition Lender Representative and the Prepetition Agent (each as defined in the Final DIP Order); (v) all other known parties with liens of record on assets of the Debtors and claims against the Debtors as of the Petition Date; (vi) the local office for the Internal Revenue Service; (vii) the Securities and Exchange Commission; (viii) the Office of the United States Attorney for the District of Delaware; (ix) any party having filed requests for notice in the Chapter 11 Cases; (x) the U.S. Department of Justice; (xi) the offices of the attorneys general for the states in which the Debtors operate; (xii) counsel to the Stalking Horse Bidder; (xiii) counsel for the Committee; and (xiv) all parties that had expressed an interest in purchasing the Debtors' assets. The requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and all applicable Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

F. In accordance with the provisions of the Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors caused the Cure Notice to be served, in compliance with the requirements of due process and the Bankruptcy Code, upon the Buyer and the non-Debtor counterparties to the executory Contracts or unexpired Leases (each, a "Contract Counterparty," and, collectively, the "Contract Counterparties"), noticing such parties: (i) that the Sellers may seek to assume and assign the Assumed Contracts on the Closing Date or such later date as contemplated by the terms of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement; and (ii) of the relevant Cure Amounts. The Court finds that: (i) the Buyer and the Contract Counterparties have had an opportunity to object to the Cure Amounts set forth in the Cure Notice; (ii) the Cure Notice provided the Buyer and the Contract Counterparties with proper notice of the potential assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts and any Cure Amount relating thereto; (iii) the service of such Cure Notice was good, sufficient, and appropriate under the circumstances; (iv) no further notice need be given in respect of establishing Cure Amounts for the Assumed Contracts; and (v) the procedures set forth in the Bidding Procedures Order with regard to objecting to any such Cure Amount satisfy the provisions of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 6006.

G. The Debtors' Auction and Sale Notice provided all interested persons and entities with timely and proper notice of, and a reasonable opportunity to object and be heard with respect to, the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts, the Sale, the Sale Hearing, and the Auction.

H. As evidenced by the affidavits of service previously filed with the Court, proper, timely, adequate, and sufficient notice of the Motion, the Bidding Procedures, the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts, the Auction, the cancellation of the Auction, the Sale Hearing, and the Sale has been provided in accordance with sections 102(1), 363, and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 6004, 6006, and 9014. The Debtors also have complied with all obligations to provide notice of the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts, the Auction, the cancellation of the Auction, the Sale Hearing, and the Sale required by the Bidding Procedures Order. The notices described in this Section II were good, sufficient, and appropriate under the circumstances, and no other or further notice of the Motion, the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts, the Auction, the cancellation of the Auction, the Sale Hearing, Sale, or the assumption, assignment, and sale of the Assumed Contracts is required.

I. The disclosures made by the Debtors concerning the Motion, the Bidding Procedures, the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts, the cancellation of the Auction, the Sale, and the Sale Hearing, were good, complete, and adequate.

III. Good Faith of the Buyer and Sellers

J. The Buyer is purchasing the Acquired Assets, including all the properties, rights, interests, and other tangible and intangible assets of the Sellers acquired by the Sellers before the Closing, including all of the Sellers' estate's claims and causes of action, including the Sellers' Prepetition Lien and Claim Matters (as defined in the Final DIP Order), the Sellers' fraudulent transfer claims, claims of the Sellers against the Sellers' directors, officers and employees, and claims and causes of action relating to or arising under Chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code, including sections 544, 545, 547, 548, and 550, or any other similar state or federal law, and any and all products, rents, offspring, profits, and proceeds of same (collectively, the "Avoidance Actions"), and excluding the Excluded Assets, and not including direct claims or direct causes of action of any Person that is not a Debtor. The Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement was negotiated, proposed, and entered into by the Sellers and the Buyer, including their respective boards of directors or equivalent governing bodies, officers, directors, employees, agents, professionals, and representatives, without collusion, in good faith, and from arm's-length bargaining positions. The Buyer is making such purchase in good faith and is a good-faith purchaser within the meaning of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, in that among other things: (i) the Buyer's Qualified Bid contained no break-up fee or expense reimbursement requirement; (ii) the Buyer's Qualified Bid was subject to a marketing process in a time frame approved by the Court through the Bidding Procedures Order; (iii) the Debtors conducted the marketing process in consultation with the official committee of unsecured creditors appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases (the "Committee") and contacted all potential bidders suggested by the Committee; (iv) the Buyer did not attempt to limit the Debtors' freedom to deal with any other party interested in acquiring the Acquired Assets; and (v) all payments to be made by the Buyer and other agreements or arrangements entered into by the Buyer in connection with the Sale have been disclosed. There was no evidence of insider influence or improper conduct by the Buyer in connection with the negotiation of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement with the Debtors, no evidence of fraud, collusion, or bad faith on the part of the Buyer, no evidence of the Buyer doing anything to control or otherwise influence the marketing or sale process, including anything to control or otherwise influence the purchase price paid for the Acquired Assets, and no evidence that the Buyer violated section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Buyer is not an “insider” of any Debtor (as defined under section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code). Accordingly, the Buyer is entitled to the full protections of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code.

K. As demonstrated by (i) any testimony and other evidence proffered or adduced at the Sale Hearing, and (ii) the representations of counsel made on the record at the Sale Hearing, substantial marketing efforts and a competitive sale process were conducted in accordance with the Bidding Procedures Order and, among other things: (a) the Sellers and the Buyer complied with the provisions in the Bidding Procedures Order; (b) the Buyer agreed to subject its bid to the competitive Bidding Procedures set forth in the Bidding Procedures Order; and (c) the Buyer in no way improperly induced or caused the chapter 11 filing by the Debtors.

IV. Highest and Best Offer

L. The Debtors’ marketing and sale process, including the Debtors’ prepetition marketing process, with respect to the Acquired Assets in accordance with the Bidding Procedures, which were followed by the Debtors, afforded a full, fair, and reasonable opportunity for any person or entity to make a higher or otherwise better offer to purchase the Acquired Assets. The Debtors implemented the Bidding Procedures and cancelled the Auction in accordance with the provisions of the Bidding Procedures Order, and the Debtors have otherwise complied with the Bidding Procedures Order in all respects. Such process was duly noticed and conducted in a noncollusive, fair, and good faith manner, in consultation with the Committee (including contacting all potential bidders suggested by the Committee), and a reasonable opportunity has been given to any interested party to make a higher and better offer for the Acquired Assets. The Debtors received no Qualified Bids by the Bid Deadline other than the Qualified Bid submitted by the Buyer. The Bidding Procedures provide that if no Qualified Bids (other than the Qualified Bid submitted by the Buyer) were received by the Bid Deadline, the Auction would not be conducted and the Buyer's Qualified Bid would be the Successful Bid for the Acquired Assets.

M. The Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement represents a fair and reasonable offer to purchase the Acquired Assets under the circumstances of the Chapter 11 Cases, including in light of the fact that no other Qualified Bids were received. The consideration provided by the Buyer under the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, including the assumption of the Assumed Liabilities, is fair and adequate, represents the highest and best available offer, including by providing the highest economic value available to the Debtors' estates, and will provide a greater recovery for the Debtors' estates than would be provided by any other available alternative. Accordingly, the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement constitutes the highest and best offer for the Acquired Assets and a valid, reasonable, and sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties, and complies in all respects with the Bid Procedures Order.

N. Approval of the Motion and the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and the consummation of the Sale contemplated thereby is in the best interests of the Debtors, their creditors, their estates and other parties in interest.

V. Secured Claims and Credit Bid/Assumption of Debt

O. The Buyer is a Delaware limited liability company that was formed on behalf of the Prepetition Lenders and the DIP Lenders, and upon the Closing Date will be owned by the Prepetition Lenders and the DIP Lenders. Pursuant to the terms of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and the Final DIP Order, (i) the DIP Lenders are secured creditors of the Debtors, holding allowed claims (as that term is defined in section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code) in the amount of the DIP Obligations secured by valid, binding, perfected, and enforceable first-priority security interests in and liens against each of the Debtors, their estates, and the property of their estates, subject to any Permitted Encumbrances (as defined in the Final DIP Order), of which $[] of such DIP Obligations will be credit bid in connection with the Sale (such DIP Obligations, the “DIP Credit Bid Claim”), and (ii) subject and subordinate to the DIP Obligations, the Prepetition Lenders are secured creditors of the Debtors, holding allowed claims (as that term is defined in section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code) in the amount of the Prepetition Liabilities secured by valid, binding, perfected, and enforceable first-priority security interests in and liens against each of the Debtors, their estates, and the property of their estates, subject to any Permitted Encumbrances, of which $[] of such Prepetition Liabilities will be credit bid in connection with the Sale (such Prepetition Liabilities, the “Prepetition Credit Bid Claim” and, together with the DIP Credit Bid Claim, the “Credit Bid Claims”); the amount of such Credit Bid Claims, the “Credit Bid Consideration”). The Buyer, or its assignee, has the right under section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code and is authorized by this Court pursuant to the Bidding Procedures Order, the Final DIP Order, and this Sale Order to credit bid and/or assume up to the full amount of the DIP Obligations and Prepetition Liabilities.

P. Pursuant to the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, the Buyer agreed to provide, as consideration for the Acquired Assets, the Purchase Price, which includes, among other things, the Credit Bid Consideration. In addition to the Credit Bid Consideration, the Buyer agreed to assume $[] of the DIP Obligations and $[] of the Prepetition Liabilities and to assume the Assumed Liabilities, comprising the Purchase Price as set forth in Section 2.5 of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement. The Purchase Price is a valid and proper offer pursuant to the Bidding Procedures Order, this Sale Order, and sections 363(b) and 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code.

VI. No Sub Rosa or De Facto Plan

Q. Good and sufficient reasons for approval of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and the transactions to be consummated in connection therewith have been articulated, and the relief requested in the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, and other parties in interest. The Debtors have demonstrated compelling circumstances and good, sufficient, and sound business purposes and justifications for the Sale outside the ordinary course of business, pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, before, and outside of, a plan of reorganization, in that, among other things, the immediate consummation of the Sale with the Buyer is necessary and appropriate to maximize the value of the Debtors' estates, and the Sale will provide the means for the Debtors to maximize distributions to creditors.

R. The Sale does not constitute a sub rosa or de facto plan of reorganization or liquidation as it does not propose to (i) impair or restructure existing debt of, or equity interests in, the Debtors, (ii) impair or circumvent voting rights with respect to any plan that may be proposed by the Debtors, (iii) circumvent Chapter 11 safeguards, such as those set forth in sections 1125 and 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, or (iv) classify claims or equity interests or extend debt maturities. Accordingly, the Sale neither impermissibly restructures the rights of the Debtors' creditors nor impermissibly dictates the terms of a liquidating chapter 11 plan for the Debtors.

VII. Successor Liability Matters

S. By virtue of the consummation of the Sale, (i) the Buyer is not a continuation of the Debtors or their respective estates, there is no continuity between the Buyer and the Debtors, there is no common identity between the Buyer and the Debtors, and there is no continuity of enterprise between the Buyer and the Debtors, (ii) the Buyer is not holding itself out to the public as a continuation of the Debtors or their respective estates, including, but not limited to, as to any warranty or similar obligations, and (iii) the Sale does not amount to a consolidation, merger, or de facto consolidation or merger of the Buyer and any of the Debtors and the Debtors' respective estates. The Buyer is not, and shall not be considered, a successor to the Debtors or their respective estates by reason of any theory of law or equity, including, but not limited to, under any federal, state or local statute or common law, or revenue, pension, ERISA, tax, labor, employment, environmental, escheat or unclaimed property laws, or other law, rule or regulation (including, without limitation, filing requirements under any such laws, rules, or regulations), or under any products liability law or doctrine with respect to the Debtors' liability under such law, rule or regulation or doctrine or common law, or under any product warranty liability law or doctrine with respect to the Debtors' liability under such law, rule or regulation or doctrine, and the Buyer and its affiliates shall have no liability or obligation under the Workers Adjustment and Retraining Act (the "WARN Act"), 929 U.S.C. §§ 210 et seq. or the Comprehensive Environmental Response Compensation and Liability Act and shall not be deemed to be a "successor employer" for purposes of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, the Americans with Disability Act, the Family Medical Leave Act, the National Labor Relations Act, the Labor Management Relations Act, the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act, the Equal Pay Act, the Civil Rights Act of 1866 (42 U.S.C. 1981), the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, the Multiemployer Pension Protection Act, the Pension Protection Act, and/or the Fair Labor Standards Act; the Buyer is not a continuation or substantial continuation of any of the Debtors or their respective estates, business or operations or any enterprise of the Debtors; the Buyer does not have a common identity of incorporators, directors or equity holders with the Debtors; and the Sale does not amount to a consolidation, merger, or de facto merger of the Buyer and the Debtors or their respective estates. Accordingly, the Buyer is not and shall not be deemed a successor to the Debtors or their respective estates as a result of the consummation of the Sale pursuant to the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order.

VIII. No Fraudulent Transfer; Validity of Transfer

T. The Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement was not entered into by the Buyer and the Sellers for the purpose of hindering, delaying, or defrauding creditors under either the Bankruptcy Code or the other laws of the United States, or the laws of any state, territory, possession, or the District of Columbia (including, without limitation, the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act and the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act). Neither the Debtors nor the Buyer entered into the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement fraudulently, nor are they are entering into or consummating the transactions contemplated by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement fraudulently, including under applicable federal and state fraudulent conveyance and fraudulent transfer laws. The consideration provided by the Buyer pursuant to the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, (i) was negotiated at arm's-length, (ii) is fair, adequate, and reasonable, (iii) is the highest or otherwise best offer for the Acquired Assets, and (iv) constitutes reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration under the Bankruptcy Code and under the other laws of the United States, and the laws of any state, territory, possession, or the District of Columbia (including, without limitation, the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act and the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act). No other person or entity or group of entities has offered to purchase the Acquired Assets for greater economic value to the Debtors' estates than the Buyer. For the purposes of statutory and common law fraudulent conveyance and fraudulent transfer claims, neither the Sellers nor the Buyer are entering into or consummating the transactions contemplated by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement fraudulently. Approval of the Motion, the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, the Sale and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, and all other parties in interest.

U. The Debtors are the sole and lawful owners of the Acquired Assets. The Acquired Assets constitute property of the Debtors' estates and title to the Acquired Assets is vested in the Debtors' estates within the meaning of section 541(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Sellers and the Buyer have full corporate power and authority to execute, deliver, and perform the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and all other documents contemplated thereby, and no further consents or approvals are required for the Sellers or the Buyer to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement or the other documents contemplated thereby, except as otherwise set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement or such other documents.

V. Subject to section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the transfer of each of the Acquired Assets to the Buyer will be, as of the Closing Date, a legal, valid, and effective transfer of the Acquired Assets, which transfer vests or will vest the Buyer with all right, title, and interest of the Debtors in, to, and under the Acquired Assets free and clear of (i) all Liens (as defined in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement) and other liens (including any liens as that term is defined in section 101(37) of the Bankruptcy Code) and encumbrances relating to, accruing, or arising at any time prior to the Closing Date (collectively, as defined in this clause (i) and as set forth in clauses (i)–(vii) of Paragraph W below, the “Liens”), other than Permitted Liens (as defined in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement), and (ii) all debts arising under, relating to, or in connection with any act of the Debtors, claims (as that term is defined in section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code) or causes of action, liabilities, obligations, demands, guaranties, options in favor of third parties, rights, easements, servitudes, restrictive covenants, encroachments, contractual commitments, restrictions, interests, mortgages, hypothecations, charges, indentures, loan agreements, instruments, collective bargaining agreements, leases, subleases, licenses, deeds of trust, security interests, conditional sale or other title retention agreements, pledges, judgments, claims for reimbursement, contribution, indemnity, exoneration, infringement, products liability, alter-ego, and matters of any kind and nature, whether arising prior to or subsequent to the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases, and whether imposed by agreement, understanding, law, equity, or otherwise, known or unknown, contingent or matured, liquidated or unliquidated, and all rights and remedies with respect thereto (a) that purport to give to any party a right of setoff or recoupment against, or a right or option to effect any forfeiture, modification, profit sharing interest, right of first refusal, purchase or repurchase right or option, or termination of, any of the Debtors' or the Buyer's interests in the Acquired Assets, or any similar rights, or (b) in respect of taxes, restrictions, rights of first refusal, charges of interests of any kind or nature, if any, including without limitation, any restriction of use, voting, transfer, receipt of income or other exercise of any attributes of ownership (collectively, as defined in this clause (ii) and as set forth in clauses (i)–(vii) of Paragraph W below, the “Claims”), relating to, accruing or arising at any time prior to entry of this Sale Order, other than Assumed Liabilities, including amounts necessary under sections 365(b)(1)(A) and (B) and 365(f)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code to cure all defaults and pay all actual pecuniary losses under the Assumed Contracts (the “Cure Amounts”) or any other obligations arising under the Assumed Contracts to the extent set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement.

IX. Section 363(f) Is Satisfied

W. The conditions of section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code have been satisfied in full; therefore, the Debtors may sell the Acquired Assets free and clear of any interests in the property.

The Buyer would not have entered into the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and would not consummate the transactions contemplated thereby if the sale of the Acquired Assets to the Buyer and the assumption, assignment, and sale of the Assumed Contracts to the Buyer were not, except as otherwise provided in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement with respect to the Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens, free and clear of all Claims and Liens of any kind or nature whatsoever of the Sellers, or if the Buyer would, or in the future could (except and only to the extent expressly provided in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and with respect to the Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens), be liable for any of such Claims and Liens, including, but not limited to, Claims and Liens in respect of the following: (i) all mortgages, deeds of trust, and security interests; (ii) any pension, welfare, compensation, or other employee benefit plans, agreements, practices, and programs, including, without limitation, any pension plan of the Sellers; (iii) any other employee, worker's compensation, occupational disease, unemployment, or temporary disability related claim, including, without limitation, claims that might otherwise arise under or pursuant to (a) the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, (b) the Fair Labor Standards Act, (c) Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, (d) the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973, (e) the National Labor Relations Act, (f) the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act of 1988, (g) the Age Discrimination and Employee Act of 1967 and Age Discrimination in Employment Act, as amended, (h) the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, (i) the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985, (j) state discrimination laws, (k) state unemployment compensation laws or any other similar state laws, or (l) any other state or federal benefits or claims relating to any employment with the Sellers or any of its predecessors; (iv) any bulk sales or similar law; (v) any tax statutes or ordinances, including, without limitation, the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended; (vi) any environmental laws, including any Environmental, Health and Safety Requirement(s); and (vii) any theories of successor or transferee liability.

X. The Sellers may sell the Acquired Assets free and clear of all Claims and Liens against the Sellers, their respective estates, or any of the Acquired Assets (except for any Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens under the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement) because, in each case, one or more of the standards set forth in section 363(f)(1)-(5) of the Bankruptcy Code has been satisfied. Holders of such Claims or Liens fall within one or more of the other subsections of section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code and are adequately protected by having their Claims or Liens attach to the net cash proceeds of the Sale, if any, ultimately attributable to the Acquired Assets in which such creditor or interest holder alleges an interest, in the same order of priority, with the same validity, force and effect that such creditor or interest holder had prior to the Sale, subject to any claims and defenses the Sellers and their estates may possess with respect thereto. Those holders of Claims or Liens against or in the Sellers, their estates or any of the Acquired Assets who did not object, who withdrew their objection, or whose objection was overruled, to the Sale or the Motion are deemed to have consented pursuant to section 363(f)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Y. The sale, conveyance, assignment and transfer of any personally identifiable information pursuant to the terms of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order complies with the terms of the Debtors' policy regarding the transfer of such personally identifiable information as of the Petition Date and, as a result, consummation of the Sale is permitted pursuant to Section 363(b)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, appointment of a consumer privacy ombudsman in accordance with sections 363(b)(1) or 332 of the Bankruptcy Code is not required with respect to the Sale.

X. Assumption and Assignment of the Assumed Contracts

Z. The assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts pursuant to the terms of this Sale Order is integral to the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and is in the best interests of the Debtors and their estates, creditors, interest holders, and other parties in interest and represents the reasonable exercise of sound and prudent business judgment by the Debtors.

AA. The Cure Amounts set forth on Exhibit B annexed hereto are the sole amounts necessary under sections 365(b)(1)(A) and (B) and 365(f)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code to cure all monetary defaults and pay all actual pecuniary losses under the Assumed Contracts.

BB. Pursuant to the terms of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, the Buyer shall have: (i) either or both cured and provided adequate assurance of cure of any defaults existing before the Closing Date under any of the Assumed Contracts, within the meaning of section 365(b)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code; and (ii) provided compensation or adequate assurance of compensation to any party for actual pecuniary loss to such party resulting from a default prior to the Closing Date under any of the Assumed Contracts, within the meaning of section 365(b)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code. After the payment of the relevant Cure Amounts by the Buyer and as required by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, the Sellers shall not have any further liabilities to the Contract Counterparties on or after the applicable Assumption Effective Date.⁵ The Buyer provided adequate assurance of its future performance under the relevant Assumed Contracts within the meaning of sections 365(b)(1)(C), 365(b)(3) (to the extent applicable) and 365(f)(2)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code. Any non-Debtor counterparty to an Assumed Contract who

⁵ For the avoidance of doubt, with respect to any Designated Contract that is assumed and assigned to the Buyer in accordance with the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and Paragraphs 21–22 of this Sale Order, “Assumption Effective Date” shall mean the later of: (i) the Objection Deadline (as defined below); or (ii) the date of resolution of any timely objection to the assumption and assignment of such Designated Contract in accordance with Paragraphs 21–22 of this Sale Order.

CC. No default exists in the Sellers' performance under the Assumed Contracts as of the Closing Date other than the failure to pay Cure Amounts or defaults that are not required to be cured as contemplated in section 365(b)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code.

XI. Compelling Circumstances for an Immediate Sale

DD. Good and sufficient reasons for approval of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and the Sale have been articulated. The relief requested in the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, and other parties in interest. To maximize the value of the Debtors' assets and preserve the viability of the business to which the Acquired Assets relate, it is essential that the Sale be approved and occur promptly within the time constraints set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement. Time is of the essence in effectuating the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and consummating the Sale, both to preserve and maximize the value of the Debtors' assets for the benefit of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, interest holders, and all other parties in interest in the Chapter 11 Cases and to provide the means for the Debtors to maximize creditor and interest holder recoveries. As such, the Debtors and the Buyer intend to close the Sale of the Acquired Assets as soon as reasonably practicable. The Debtors have demonstrated both compelling circumstances and a good, sufficient, and sound business purpose and justification for immediate approval and consummation of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement.

EE. The consummation of the transactions set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts are legal, valid, and properly authorized under all applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, sections 105(a), 363(b), 363(f), 363(m), 365(b) and 365(f), and all of the applicable requirements of such sections have been complied with in respect of such transactions.

The Sellers are authorized to enter into the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and all other ancillary documents to be executed in connection with the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement as may be necessary.

6. Pursuant to sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, entry by the Sellers into the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement is hereby authorized and approved. The Sellers and the Buyer acting by and through their existing agents, representatives, and officers are authorized, empowered and directed, without further order of this Court, to use their reasonable best efforts to take any and all actions necessary or appropriate to (i) consummate and close the Sale in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order, (ii) transfer and assign all rights, title, and interest to all assets, property, licenses, and rights of the Sellers to be conveyed in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, and (iii) execute and deliver, perform under, consummate, implement, and close fully the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, including the assumption and assignment to the Buyer of the Assumed Contracts, together with all additional instruments and documents that may be reasonably necessary or desirable to implement the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and the Sale, including any other ancillary documents, or as may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to the performance of the obligations as contemplated by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and such other ancillary documents, including any actions that otherwise would require further approval by shareholders, members, or their boards of directors, as the case may be, without the need to obtain such approvals. The Sellers are hereby authorized to perform their covenants and undertakings as provided in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and any ancillary documents before or after the Closing Date without further order of the Court. Neither the Buyer nor the Sellers shall have any obligation to proceed with the Closing under the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement until all conditions precedent to their obligations to do so have been met, satisfied, or waived, except as otherwise contemplated and provided for in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement.

7. This Sale Order and the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement shall be binding in all respects upon the Debtors, including the Debtors' estates, all holders of equity interests in any Debtor, all holders of Claims or Liens (whether known or unknown) against any Debtor, including the Committee, any holders of Claims or Liens against or on all or any portion of the Acquired Assets, all Contract Counterparties, the Buyer and all successors and assigns of the Buyer, the Acquired Assets, all successors and assigns of the Debtors, any party in interest with standing to commence a Challenge, and any subsequent trustees appointed in any of the Chapter 11 Cases or upon a conversion to chapter 7 under the Bankruptcy Code of any of the Chapter 11 Cases, and shall not be subject to rejection or unwinding. This Sale Order and the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement shall inure to the benefit of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, the Buyer and their respective successors and assigns. Nothing in any chapter 11 plan confirmed in the Chapter 11 Cases, the confirmation order confirming any such chapter 11 plan, any order approving the wind down or dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases, or any order entered upon the conversion of the Chapter 11 Cases to one or more cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise shall alter, conflict with, or derogate from, the provisions of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement or this Sale Order.

Transfer of the Acquired Assets

8. Pursuant to sections 105(a), 363(b), 363(f), 365(b) and 365(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Sellers are authorized and directed to transfer the Acquired Assets to the Buyer on the Closing Date. The transfer of the Acquired Assets to the Buyer under the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement does not require any consents other than as specifically provided for in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement. The transfer of the Sellers' rights, title, and interest in the Acquired Assets to the Buyer pursuant to the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement shall be deemed transferred to the Buyer upon and as of the Closing Date, and such transfer of the Acquired Assets and the consummation of the Sale and any related actions contemplated thereby constitute a legal, valid, binding, and effective transfer of the Sellers' right, title, and interest in the Acquired Assets and shall vest the Buyer with all the rights, title and interest of the Sellers in and to the Acquired Assets as set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, free and clear of all Claims and Liens (except Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens). Upon the Closing, the Buyer shall take title to and possession of the Acquired Assets subject only to the Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens. Pursuant to section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the transfer of title to the Acquired Assets and the Assumed Contracts shall be free and clear of all Claims and Liens including, without limitation, all Claims pursuant to any successor or successor-in-interest liability theory, except for Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens.

9. The sale of the Avoidance Actions pursuant to the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement is hereby approved. Standing to file, prosecute, settle any and all claims or causes of action that are Acquired Assets, including, but not limited to, the Avoidance Actions shall be irrevocably vested in the Buyer to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law and the Buyer shall have the unconditional right to file, prosecute, settle, and/or collect such claims or causes of action, including, but not limited to, the Avoidance Actions, in the name of the Debtors or on the Debtors' behalf as if such claims or causes of action, including, but not limited to, the Avoidance Actions, were retained by the Debtors and is hereby appointed irrevocable attorney-in-fact for that purpose.

10. On the Closing Date, this Sale Order shall be construed and shall constitute for any and all purposes a full and complete general assignment, conveyance, and transfer of all of the Sellers' rights, title, and interest in the Acquired Assets or a bill of sale transferring good and marketable title in such Acquired Assets to the Buyer on the Closing Date pursuant to the terms of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order, free and clear of all Claims and Liens (other than Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens). For the avoidance of doubt, the Excluded Assets set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement are not included in the Acquired Assets, and the Excluded Liabilities set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement are not Assumed Liabilities.

11. The Buyer shall be authorized, as of the Closing Date, to operate under any license, permit, registration, and governmental authorization or approval of the Sellers constituting Acquired Assets, and all such licenses, permits, registrations, and governmental authorizations and approvals are deemed to have been, and hereby are, directed to be transferred to the Buyer as of the Closing Date as provided by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement. To the extent provided by section 525 of the Bankruptcy Code, no governmental unit may revoke or suspend any grant, permit, or license relating to the operation of the Acquired Assets sold, transferred, assigned, or conveyed to the Buyer on account of the filing or pendency of the Chapter 11 Cases or the consummation of the Sale.

12. Except with respect to Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens, all persons and entities holding Claims against the Debtors or Claims or Liens in all or any portion of the Acquired Assets arising under or out of, in connection with or in any way relating to the Debtors, the Acquired Assets, the operation of the Debtors' business prior to the Closing Date, the transfer of the Acquired Assets to the Buyer, or otherwise, are hereby forever barred, estopped, and permanently enjoined from asserting against the Buyer or its successors or assigns, their property, or the Acquired Assets such persons' or entities' Claims against the Debtors or Claims or Liens in and to the Acquired Assets. On and after the Closing Date, each creditor is authorized and directed to execute such documents and take all other actions as may be deemed by the Buyer to be necessary or desirable to evidence the release of Claims or Liens, if any, as provided for herein, as such Claim or Lien may have been recorded or may otherwise exist.

13. All persons and entities that are presently, or on the Closing Date may be, in possession of some or all of the Acquired Assets to be sold, transferred, or conveyed (wherever located) to the Buyer pursuant to the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement are hereby directed to surrender possession of such Acquired Assets to the Buyer on the Closing Date. To the extent that any such person or entity fails or refuses to surrender possession of such Acquired Assets on or after the Closing Date, the Buyer has the right to commence a turnover action and have it considered on an expedited basis. All persons are hereby forever prohibited and enjoined from taking any action that would adversely affect or interfere with, or which would be inconsistent with, the ability of the Sellers to sell and transfer any or all of the Acquired Assets to the Buyer, or the ability of the Buyer to take title and possession of any or all of the Acquired Assets, in accordance with the terms of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order.

14. This Sale Order is and shall be effective as a determination that, as of the Closing Date, all Claims and Liens of any kind or nature whatsoever existing as to the Acquired Assets before the Closing, other than Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens, or as otherwise provided in this Sale Order, shall have been unconditionally released, discharged, and terminated. Moreover, this Sale Order is and shall be effective as a determination that, as of the Closing Date, the conveyances described herein have been affected, with all such Claims and Liens to attach to any net proceeds received by the Sellers ultimately attributable to the Acquired Assets against, or in, which such Claims or Liens are asserted, subject to the terms thereof, with the same validity, force, and effect, and in the same order of priority, which such Claims or Liens now have against the Acquired Assets, subject to any rights, claims, and defenses that the Sellers or their estates, as applicable, may possess with respect thereto.

15. This Sale Order is and shall be binding upon and govern the acts of all persons and entities, including, without limitation, all filing agents, filing officers, title agents, title companies, recorders of mortgages, recorders of deeds, registrars of deeds, administrative agencies, governmental departments, secretaries of state, federal and local officials and all other persons and entities who may be required by operation of law, the duties of their office, or contract, to accept, file, register or otherwise record or release any documents or instruments, or who may be required to report or insure any title or state of title in or to any lease, and each of the foregoing persons and entities is hereby authorized and directed to accept for filing any and all of the documents and instruments necessary and appropriate to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement.

16. Each and every federal, state, and local governmental agency or department is hereby authorized to accept any and all documents and instruments necessary and appropriate to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement. A certified copy of this Sale Order may be: (i) filed with the appropriate clerk; (ii) recorded with the recorder; or (iii) filed or recorded with any other governmental agency to act to cancel any of the Claims, Liens, and other encumbrances of record.

17. If any person or entity that has filed statements or other documents or agreements evidencing Claims or Liens in all or any portion of the Acquired Assets has not delivered to the Sellers prior to the Closing Date, in proper form for filing and executed by the appropriate parties, termination statements, instruments of satisfaction, releases of Liens and Claims and any other documents necessary or desirable to the Buyer for the purpose of documenting the release of all Claims and Liens (other than Assumed Liabilities or Permitted Liens), which the person or entity has or may assert with respect to all or any portion of the Acquired Assets, then the Buyer and the Sellers are hereby authorized to execute and file such statements, instruments, releases and other documents in the name and on behalf of such person or entity with respect to the Acquired Assets; provided that, notwithstanding anything in this Sale Order or the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement to the contrary, the provisions of this Sale Order shall be self-executing, and neither the Debtors nor the Buyer shall be required to execute or file releases termination statements, assignments, consents, or other instruments in order to effectuate, consummate, and implement the provisions of this Sale Order.

DIP Facility Obligations; Continuing Lien

18. On the Closing Date, subject only to retaining Excluded Cash, the Debtors shall pay directly to the Buyer all remaining cash collateral and all cash in immediately available funds, without deduction or setoff, which payment shall be indefeasible once made, and not subject to recovery, diminution, reduction, or reversal on any basis, free and clear of all Claims, Liens, interests and encumbrances, including those of the Prepetition Secured Parties (as defined in the Final DIP Order) under the Final DIP Order. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Sale Order or otherwise, the liens and claims of the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders (each as defined in the Final DIP Order), as applicable, pursuant to the Final DIP Order shall continue to attach to all cash and cash collateral remaining at the Debtors, including the Excluded Cash, with the same priority, validity, extent, force, and effect as they now have to secure the obligations owed by the Debtors to the Buyer to pay to the Buyer any funds remaining in the Debtors' accounts after payment of the amounts set forth in the Approved DIP Budget (as defined in the Final DIP Order); provided, however, that notwithstanding the occurrence of the Scheduled Maturity Date (as defined in the Final DIP Order), the Debtors shall be authorized to continue to use Excluded Cash to fund the Approved DIP Budget in accordance with the Final DIP Order and to fund costs incurred in performing their obligations under any Transition Services Agreement in accordance with an agreement with the Buyer, including on a budget with respect thereto. At such time as the funds remaining at the Debtors are no longer necessary to fund the Approved DIP Budget or agreed costs incurred in performing their obligations under any Transition Services Agreement, such funds shall be promptly paid to the Buyer and the Final DIP Order and all the rights, claims, and interests of the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders, as applicable, pursuant thereto shall remain in full force and effect until such payments have been indefeasibly paid in cash to the Buyer.

19. Without limitation to the other provisions of this Sale Order, at the Closing, the Prepetition Secured Parties (as such term is defined in the Final DIP Order), shall execute such documents and take such other actions as may be reasonably necessary to release their Claims and Liens in and to the Cash of the Debtors as of the Closing that is transferred to the Buyer; provided, however, any failure to do so shall not in any way affect the validity of such transfer pursuant to this Sale Order.

Assumed Contracts

20. The Sellers are hereby authorized and directed in accordance with sections 105(a), 363, and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code to (a) assume and assign the Assumed Contracts to the Buyer free and clear of all Claims, Liens, and other interests of any kind or nature whatsoever (other than the Assumed Liabilities), subject to the terms of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order, as of the applicable Assumption Effective Date and (b) execute and deliver to the Buyer such documents or other instruments as the Buyer deems necessary to assign and transfer the Assumed Contracts to the Buyer in accordance with the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement. The payment of the applicable Cure Amounts (if any) by the Buyer as required by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement shall (i) effect a cure of all defaults existing thereunder as of the applicable Assumption Effective Date, (ii) compensate for any actual pecuniary loss to the applicable Contract Counterparty resulting from such default, and (iii) together with the assignment by the Sellers to and the assumption of the Assumed Contracts by the Buyer, constitute adequate assurance of future performance thereof.

21. On the Closing Date, the Debtors shall assume and assign to Buyer each Assumed Contract designated by Buyer for assumption and assignment on the Closing Date in accordance with the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, and which Assumed Contracts are set forth on Exhibit B attached hereto. In accordance with the terms of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, during the ninety (90) days following the Closing Date (the “Designation Rights Period”), the Buyer may deliver written notice (each, a “Designation Notice”) to the Debtors designating any Contract or Lease on the Designation List (each a “Designated Contract”) for either: (a) assumption and assignment to the Buyer, or (ii) rejection. Any such Designation Notice must be provided by the Buyer to the Debtors at least three (3) Business Days prior to the expiration of the Designation Rights Period. Within two (2) Business Days following the Debtors' receipt of any such Designation Notice, the Debtors shall provide written notice to the counterparty to such Designated Contract (each a "Designation Counterparty") of the Debtors' intent to assume and assign or reject such Designated Contract, which notice shall include, among other things, a deadline (the "Objection Deadline") of no less than ten (10) Business Days from the date of service of such notice to object to the assumption and assignment of such Designated Contract. Upon the expiration of this Objection Deadline, no further Court approval shall be required for the transfer of such Contract or Leases in accordance with the terms of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement unless (1) the counterparty to the Designated Contract timely serves an objection upon the Debtors and the Buyer that relates to adequate assurance of future performance or a cure issue that could not have been raised in an objection to any Cure Notice prior to the Sale Hearing and pertains to matters arising after the Closing, or (2) the Designation Counterparty otherwise consents to the assumption and assignment on terms mutually agreed by the Buyer and the Designation Counterparty. To the extent a Designation Counterparty timely files an objection with respect to the assumption and assignment or rejection of such Designated Contract, the Debtors shall be authorized to settle or resolve such objection pursuant to the terms of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and this Sale Order without further order from this Court; provided, however, that if the Debtors, Buyer, and objecting Designation Counterparty are unable to resolve such objection, the Debtors shall schedule the matter for hearing on no less than five (5) Business Days' notice.

22. During the Designation Rights Period, Buyer may deliver a written notice to the Debtors of Buyer's entry into an agreement with a Designation Counterparty pursuant to which such Designation Counterparty consents to the assumption and assignment to Buyer or its designee of such Designated Contract on the terms set forth in such agreement (each, an “Amended Designated Contract”). The assumption and assignment of such Amended Designated Contract shall be effective on the date set forth in the written notice provided to the Debtors without further order of the Court.

23. Pursuant to section 365(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the assignment by the Sellers of the Assumed Contracts shall not be a default thereunder. After the payment of the relevant Cure Amounts as required by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, the Sellers shall not have any further liabilities to the Contract Counterparties, and the counterparties shall be estopped from asserting any and all Claims or Liens, whether known or unknown, against the Sellers on account of the Assumed Contract.

24. Any provisions in any Assumed Contract that prohibits or conditions the assignment of such Assumed Contract to the Buyer or allows the party to such Assumed Contract to terminate, recapture, impose any penalty, condition on renewal or extension, or modify any term or condition upon the assignment of such Assumed Contract to the Buyer, constitute unenforceable anti-assignment provisions that are void and of no force and effect. All other requirements and conditions under sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code for the assumption by the Sellers and assignment to the Buyer of the Assumed Contracts have been satisfied.

25. Upon the applicable Assumption Effective Date of any Assumed Contract, in accordance with sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Buyer shall be fully and irrevocably vested with all right, title and interest of the Sellers under such Assumed Contract. To the extent provided in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, the Debtors shall cooperate with and take all actions reasonably requested by the Buyer to effectuate the foregoing.

26. Upon the applicable Assumption Effective Date and the payment of the relevant Cure Amount, if any, the Buyer shall be deemed to be substituted for the Sellers as a party to the applicable Assumed Contract and the Sellers shall be relieved, pursuant to section 365(k) of the Bankruptcy Code, from any further liability under such Assumed Contract.

27. Upon the applicable Assumption Effective Date and the payment of the relevant Cure Amount, if any, the Assumed Contracts will remain in full force and effect (subject to any amendments agreed to between the counterparty to such Assumed Contract and the Buyer), and no default shall exist under the Assumed Contracts and no counterparty to any Assumed Contract shall be permitted (i) to declare a default by the Buyer under such Assumed Contract, or (ii) to otherwise take action against the Buyer as a result of any Debtors' financial condition, bankruptcy, or failure to perform any of its obligations under the relevant Assumed Contract. Each non-Debtor party to any Assumed Contract hereby is also forever barred, estopped, and permanently enjoined from (a) asserting against the Debtors or the Buyer, or the property of any of them, any default or Claim arising out of any indemnity obligation or warranties for acts or occurrences arising prior to or existing as of the applicable Assumption Effective Date, or, against the Buyer, any counterclaim, defense, setoff, or any other Claim asserted or assertable against the Debtors, except as otherwise provided in this Sale Order, and (b) imposing or charging against the Buyer or its affiliates any rent accelerations, assignment fees, increases (including advertising rates), or any other fees as a result of the Debtors' assumption and assignments to the Buyer of the Assumed Contracts.

28. Pursuant to sections 105(a), 363, and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, other than the right to payment of any Cure Amount, all Contract Counterparties are forever barred and permanently enjoined from raising or asserting against either the Sellers or the Buyer any assignment fee, default, breach, Claim, pecuniary loss, or condition to assignment arising under or related to the Assumed Contracts existing as of the Closing Date or arising by reason of the Closing.

29. Any Contract Counterparty who did not timely file an objection to the assumption of its Assumed Contract shall be deemed to have consented to the Assumed Contract's assumption and assignment to the Buyer pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. All objections to the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts that have not been withdrawn, waived, settled, or adjourned, as announced to the Court at the Sale Hearing or by stipulation filed with the Court, and all reservations of rights included in such objections or otherwise, are hereby denied and overruled on the merits with prejudice.

30. All non-Debtor counterparties to the Assumed Contracts shall cooperate and expeditiously execute and deliver, upon the reasonable request of the Buyer, any instruments, applications, consents, or other documents that may be required or requested by any public authority or other party or entity to effectuate the applicable transfers in connection with the sale of the Acquired Assets.

Other Provisions

31. Any Prepetition Liabilities or DIP Obligations not included in the Credit Bid Consideration and not assumed by the Buyer as specified in Paragraph P of this Sale Order shall remain outstanding against the relevant Debtors until such Prepetition Liabilities are indefeasibly repaid in full in cash or otherwise satisfied in a manner acceptable to the Prepetition Lenders.

32. If and to the extent the Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases are converted to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, any cash or cash collateral held by the Debtors for which no potential expense exists under the Approved DIP Budget shall be remitted to the Buyer prior to such conversion.

33. Absent the express written consent of the Buyer, the Debtors shall not settle or otherwise resolve any Litigation with any third party or any Governmental Entity other than any settlement pursuant to which (i) any Liability thereunder will be an Excluded Liability, (ii) no payment from the Buyer is sought or required, and (iii) no restrictions are placed on or affecting the Business or Acquired Assets from and after the Closing Date.

34. The consideration provided by the Buyer for the Sellers' rights, title, and interest in the Acquired Assets under the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement constitutes reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration for the Acquired Assets under the Bankruptcy Code, Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, and other applicable law within the meaning of section 544(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, under the laws of the United States, any state, territory, possession, or the District of Columbia.

35. Effective upon the Closing Date, except as set forth in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement with respect to Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens, all persons and entities are forever prohibited and permanently enjoined from commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding, whether in law or equity, in any judicial, administrative, arbitral, or other proceeding against the Buyer, its successors and assigns, or the Acquired Assets, with respect to any (i) Claims and Liens arising under, out of, in connection with or in any way relating to the Sellers, the Buyer, the Acquired Assets, or the operation of the Acquired Assets prior to the Closing or (ii) successor liability based, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, on any theory of successor or vicarious liability of any kind of character, or based upon any theory of antitrust, environmental, successor or transferee liability, de facto merger or substantial continuity, labor and employment, or products liability, whether known or unknown as of the Closing, now existing or hereafter arising, asserted or unasserted, fixed or contingent, or liquidated or unliquidated, including, without limitation, the following actions: (a) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding against the Buyer, its successors or assigns, assets, or properties; (b) enforcing, attaching, collecting or recovering in any manner any judgment, award, decree, or order against the Buyer, its successors or assigns, assets, or properties; (c) creating, perfecting, or enforcing any Claims or Liens against the Buyer, its successors or assigns, assets, or properties; (d) asserting any setoff, right of subrogation, or recoupment of any kind against any obligation due to the Buyer or its successors or assigns; (e) commencing or continuing any action, in any manner or place, that does not comply or is inconsistent with the provisions of this Sale Order or other orders of the Court, or the agreements or actions contemplated or taken in respect thereof; or (f) revoking, terminating, or failing or refusing to renew any license, permit or authorization to operate any of the Acquired Assets or conduct any of the businesses operated with the Acquired Assets.

36. Except for the Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Liens, the Buyer shall not have any liability or other obligation of the Debtors arising under or related to any of the Acquired Assets or the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement or the transactions related thereto. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and except for the Assumed Liabilities or Permitted Liens provided in the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement, the Buyer shall not be liable for any Claims or Liens against the Debtors or any of its predecessors or affiliates, and the Buyer shall have no successor or vicarious liabilities of any kind or character, including, but not limited to, any theory of antitrust, environmental, successor or transferee liability, labor law, de facto merger or substantial continuity, labor and employment, or products liability, whether known or unknown as of the Closing, now existing or hereafter arising, asserted or unasserted, fixed or contingent, or liquidated or unliquidated, with respect to the Debtors or any obligations of the Debtors arising before the Closing Date, including, but not limited to, liabilities on account of any taxes arising, accruing, or payable under, out of, in connection with, or in any way relating to the operation of any of the Acquired Assets before the Closing.

37. The transactions contemplated by the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement are undertaken by the Buyer without collusion and in good faith, as that term is defined in section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, and accordingly, the reversal or modification on appeal of the authorization provided herein to consummate the Sale shall not affect the validity of the Sale (including the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts), unless such authorization and such Sale are duly stayed pending such appeal. The Buyer is a good faith purchaser within the meaning of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code and, as such, is entitled to the full protections of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code.

38. No bulk sales law or any similar law of any state or other jurisdiction applies in any way to the transactions with the Debtors that are approved by this Sale Order, including, without limitation, the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and the Sale.

39. The failure specifically to include any particular provision of the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement in this Sale Order shall not diminish or impair the effectiveness of such provision, it being the intent of the Court that the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement be authorized and approved in its entirety.

40. The Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and any related or ancillary agreements, documents or other instruments may be modified, amended, or supplemented by the parties thereto and in accordance with the terms thereof, without further order of the Court; provided that any such modification, amendment or supplement does not have a material adverse effect on the Debtors' estates. The Purchase Agreement shall not be altered, amended, rejected, discharged or otherwise affected without the prior written consent of the Buyer.

41. To the extent that this Sale Order is inconsistent with any prior order or pleading with respect to the Motion in the Chapter 11 Cases, the terms of this Sale Order shall govern. To the extent there are any inconsistencies between the terms of this Sale Order and the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement (including any ancillary documents executed in connection therewith), the terms of this Sale Order shall govern.

42. The provisions of this Sale Order are nonseverable and mutually dependent.
